Day 4 – Prejmer, Malomkert (bread baking workshop), ethnographic museum

Travel to the fortified Prejmer Church, a UNESCO World Heritage site that reflects the defensive ingenuity of the Saxon settlers. Its thick walls, fortified towers, and secret passages tell stories of centuries of village life and resilience. Later, arrive at Malomkert, a small, traditional village where history comes alive through experience. Take part in a hands-on bread-baking workshop, learning age-old techniques and savoring the aroma of freshly baked loaves. Pause for a traditional Hungarian lunch, enjoying recipes handed down for generations, hearty yet delicate, a true taste of local life. The day continues with a visit to an ethnographic museum, a site that captures the region's cultural nuances, from architectural details to local traditions, offering insights into rural Romanian life that are rarely seen by visitors.

Day 5 – Bicz Gorges, night at a monastery

Travel through the breathtaking Bicz Gorges, a dramatic natural corridor where cliffs rise sharply on either side, carved by millennia of river flow. The scenery inspires awe at the sheer force of nature and the tranquility of Romania's wilderness. Arrive at Văratec Monastery, a living spiritual sanctuary where you will spend the night. Share a quiet dinner with the nuns, savoring meals prepared with care, and enjoy the rare chance to experience monastic life firsthand. Evening walks through the monastery grounds, surrounded by serene forests and the gentle hum of daily devotion, offer a sense of calm and reflection rarely found in the bustle of modern travel.

Day 6 – Voroneț Monastery, Painted Eggs Museum, Moldovița Monastery

Explore the painted monasteries of Bucovina, masterpieces of medieval religious art. Begin with Voroneț Monastery, renowned for its vivid frescoes, including the iconic “Last Judgment” painted in a luminous shade of blue. Continue to the Vama Painted Eggs Museum, where every decorated egg tells a story of tradition, symbolism, and folk artistry. Conclude with Moldovița Monastery, whose walls are covered in intricate frescoes, inviting contemplation and admiration of craftsmanship that has endured centuries. This day blends spirituality, art, and culture in a way that few destinations can offer.

Day 7 – Cailor Waterfall, Bârsana Monastery, Home-Hosted Dinner

Visit Cascada Cailor (Horses' Waterfall), Romania's tallest, set in a mountain landscape of forests and alpine meadows: a spectacular chairlift ride and a moderate trek brings you close to the cascading waters and fresh mountain air. Continue to Bârsana Monastery, whose carved gates and tall wooden spires stand as a testament to local craftsmanship and devotion, representing the architectural spirit of Maramureș. In the evening, arrive at a private village home and enjoy a traditionally cooked dinner prepared with local ingredients and served alongside homemade plum brandy, offering a warm introduction to rural life and local hospitality.

Accommodation in a village home

Day 8 – Merry Cemetery, Anti-communist Memorial, Folklore Evening

Discover the world-famous Săpânța Merry Cemetery, where colorful crosses and poetic epitaphs celebrate life with humor, reflecting a uniquely local perspective on memory and tradition. Visit the Memorial of the Victims of Communism and of the Resistance, gaining insight into Romania's recent history and the resilience of its people. In the evening, enjoy a full home-hosted cultural experience with a traditional dinner and a private folklore show, where local musicians and dancers bring the region's music, costumes, and stories to life in an atmosphere of connection and celebration.

Day 10 – Transfăgărașan, Sibiu

Drive along the legendary Transfăgărașan, often called the most spectacular road in Europe. Hairpin bends, high mountain passes, and dramatic vistas offer a continuous feast for the eyes, with cascading waterfalls and emerald valleys creating a cinematic backdrop. Pause to admire Lake Bâlea and the surrounding peaks before descending into the historic city of Sibiu. Once the European Capital of Culture, Sibiu blends medieval fortifications, elegant Baroque buildings, and lively squares that invite exploration. Stroll through Piața Mare, the Great Square, and discover hidden courtyards, museums, and artisan shops. As dusk falls, the city's rooftops and towers glow in warm tones, reflecting centuries of history in the heart of Transylvania.
