

Classic Romania Tour

5-day cultural tour across Romania's timeless traditions

Day 1 – Arrival

Arrival at Bucharest Airport and private transfer to your centrally-located hotel. Depending on your arrival time, you may begin discovering the city's main highlights: stroll through the Old Town with its narrow streets, colorful buildings, and lively cafés, or admire the grand boulevards and historic squares. This optional exploration offers a first introduction to Romania before the exciting days ahead.

Day 2: Royal Castles and the Medieval Heart of Brasov

Leave the capital behind and ascend into the Carpathians. Your first stop is the elegant Peleş Castle, the fairytale residence of Romania's first king, nestled in Sinaia's forested hills. Continue to the legendary Bran Castle, forever tied to the Dracula myth. End the day in Braşov, where medieval charm radiates from cobbled streets, colorful facades, and the towering Black Church. Evening at leisure in the old town.

Day 3: From Brașov to Sibiu, Through Cities Where Time Stands Still

After breakfast, head to Sighișoara, a living medieval citadel where defensive towers, cobbled alleys, and colorful facades tell centuries-old Saxon tales. On your guided tour, admire the Clock Tower, the hilltop church, and the birthplace of Vlad the Impaler. In the afternoon, continue to Sibiu, a fortified city with a Central European flair. Stroll through the Old Town to see the Grand Square, the Bridge of Lies, and the iconic rooftops with “watchful eyes.” Once a European Capital of Culture, Sibiu blends elegance and history at every turn.

Day 4: Royal Tombs and Timeless Legends

Cross the Olt River and wind your way south through forested valleys. Stop at Curtea de Argeș Monastery, one of Romania’s most revered religious sites, housing the Royal Mausoleum of Romania’s monarchs. Learn about the legend of Master Manole as you admire the monastery’s twisted towers and intricate stonework. Return to Bucharest for a relaxed evening and your farewell night in Romania.
